Achieve significant brand engagement for customers, employees and talents

To redesign, in a simple and effective way, the entire user experience through innovative digital engagement technologies: the challenge of the Armani Group.

In a nutshell

Our client

Giorgio Armani S.p.A. operates in the field of fashion, design and luxury and was founded by Giorgio Armani and Sergio Galeotti in 1975. The group designs, manufactures and distributes fashion products, clothing, accessories, eyewear, watches, jewelry, cosmetics, fragrances, furniture and furnishings.

The challenge

To redesign, in a simple and effective way, the entire user experience through innovative digital engagement technologies.

The solution

The realization of a digital engagement platform able to create contests with prizes for the engagement of customers, employees and talents, to make the best use of online and offline communication channels, to personalize the user experience in stores, to drastically reduce the time and cost of implementation of digital marketing campaigns.

Our client

Giorgio Armani S.p.A is an Italian holding company active in the fashion industry. The group designs, manufactures and distributes fashion products, clothing, accessories, eyewear, watches, jewelry, cosmetics, fragrances, furniture and home accessories. The challenge for the marketing manager.

- to develop new communication channels with an omnichannel approach
 - to manage the increasingly complex customer experience in a way that is consistent with the company's messages and image
 - to make the user experience unique and convergent respect to the various company touch-points

The solution proposed by Svelto!

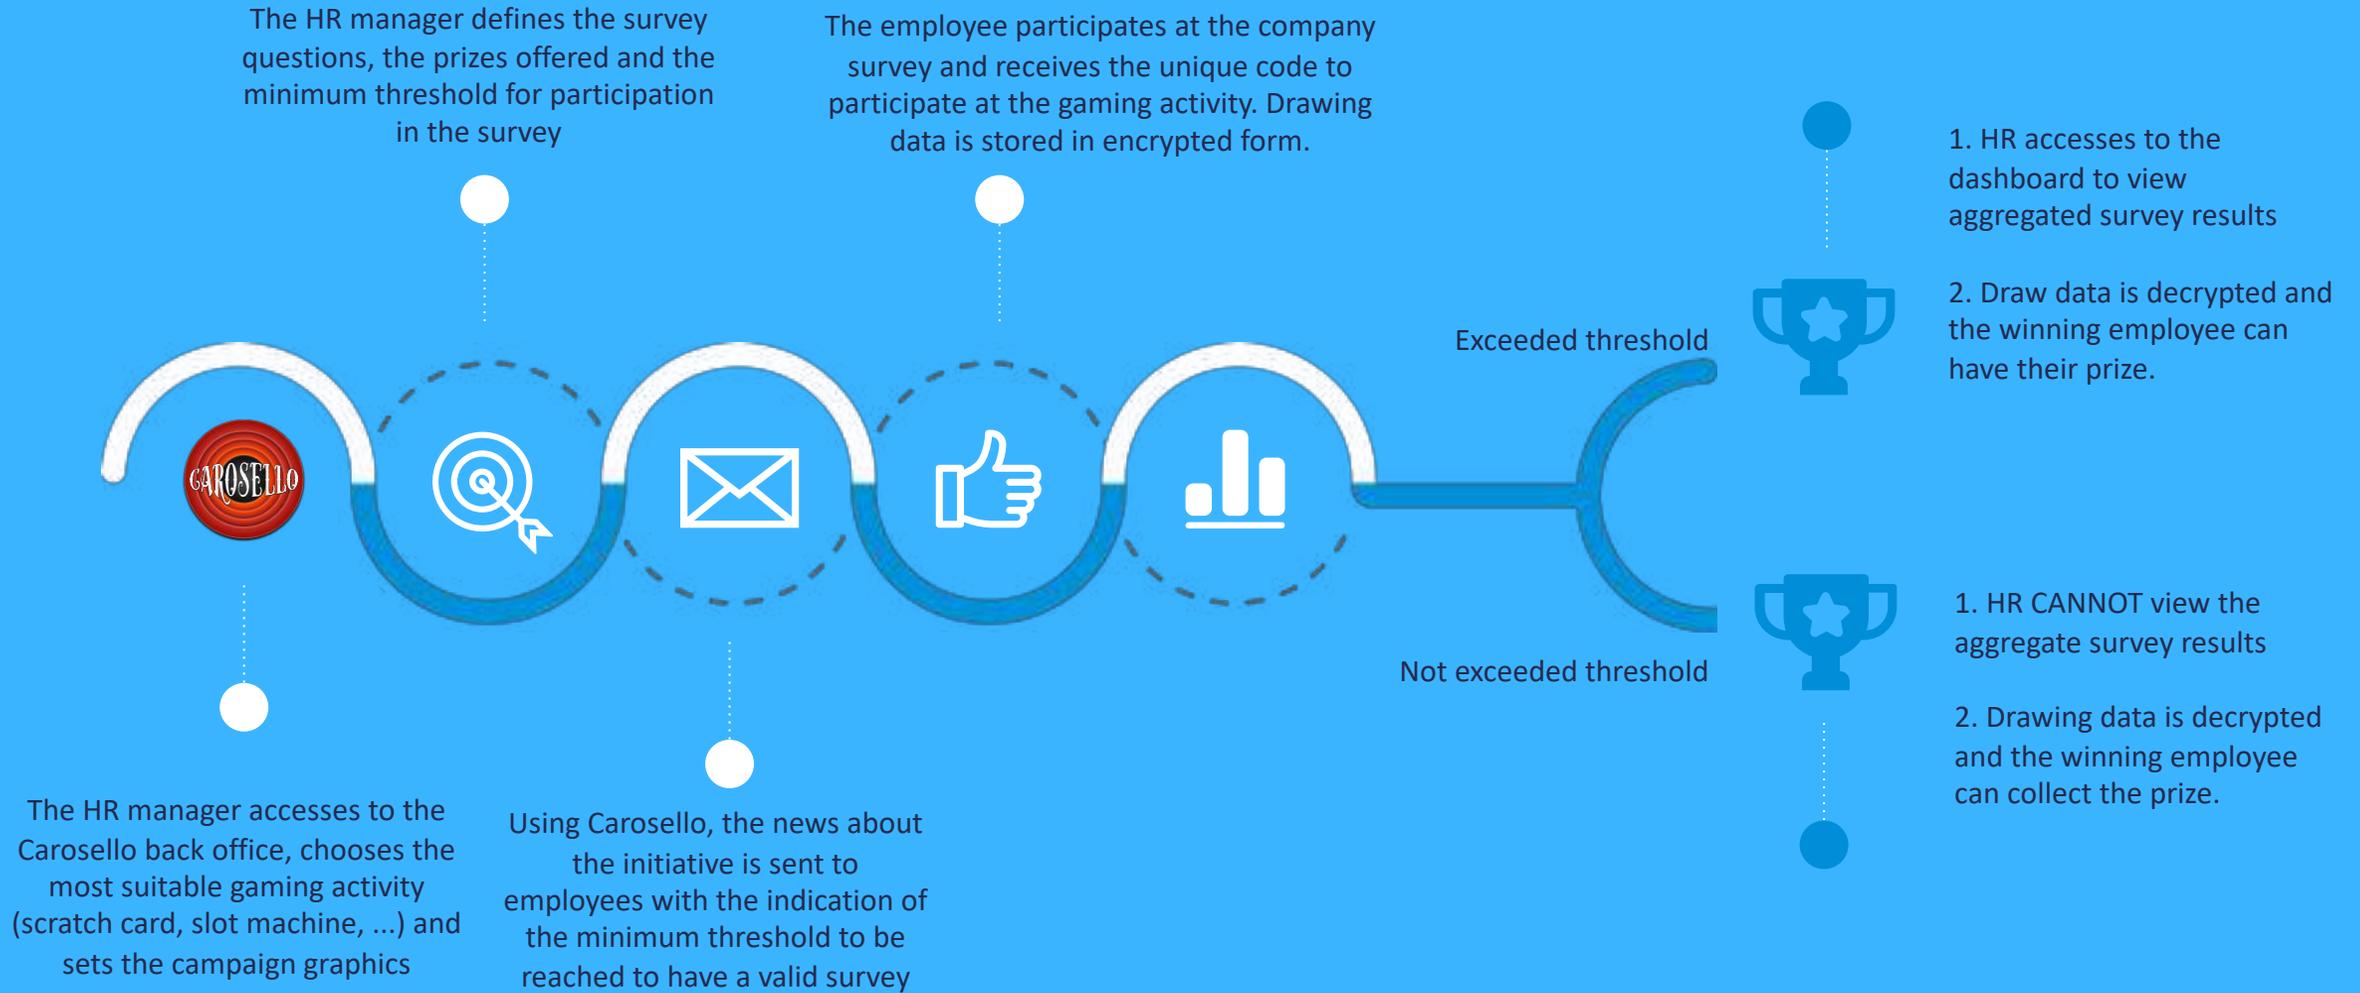

Carosello: the engagement platform that allows to ensure a coordinated and consistent involvement of customers and employees through the creation of contests and gaming activities using online and offline channels.

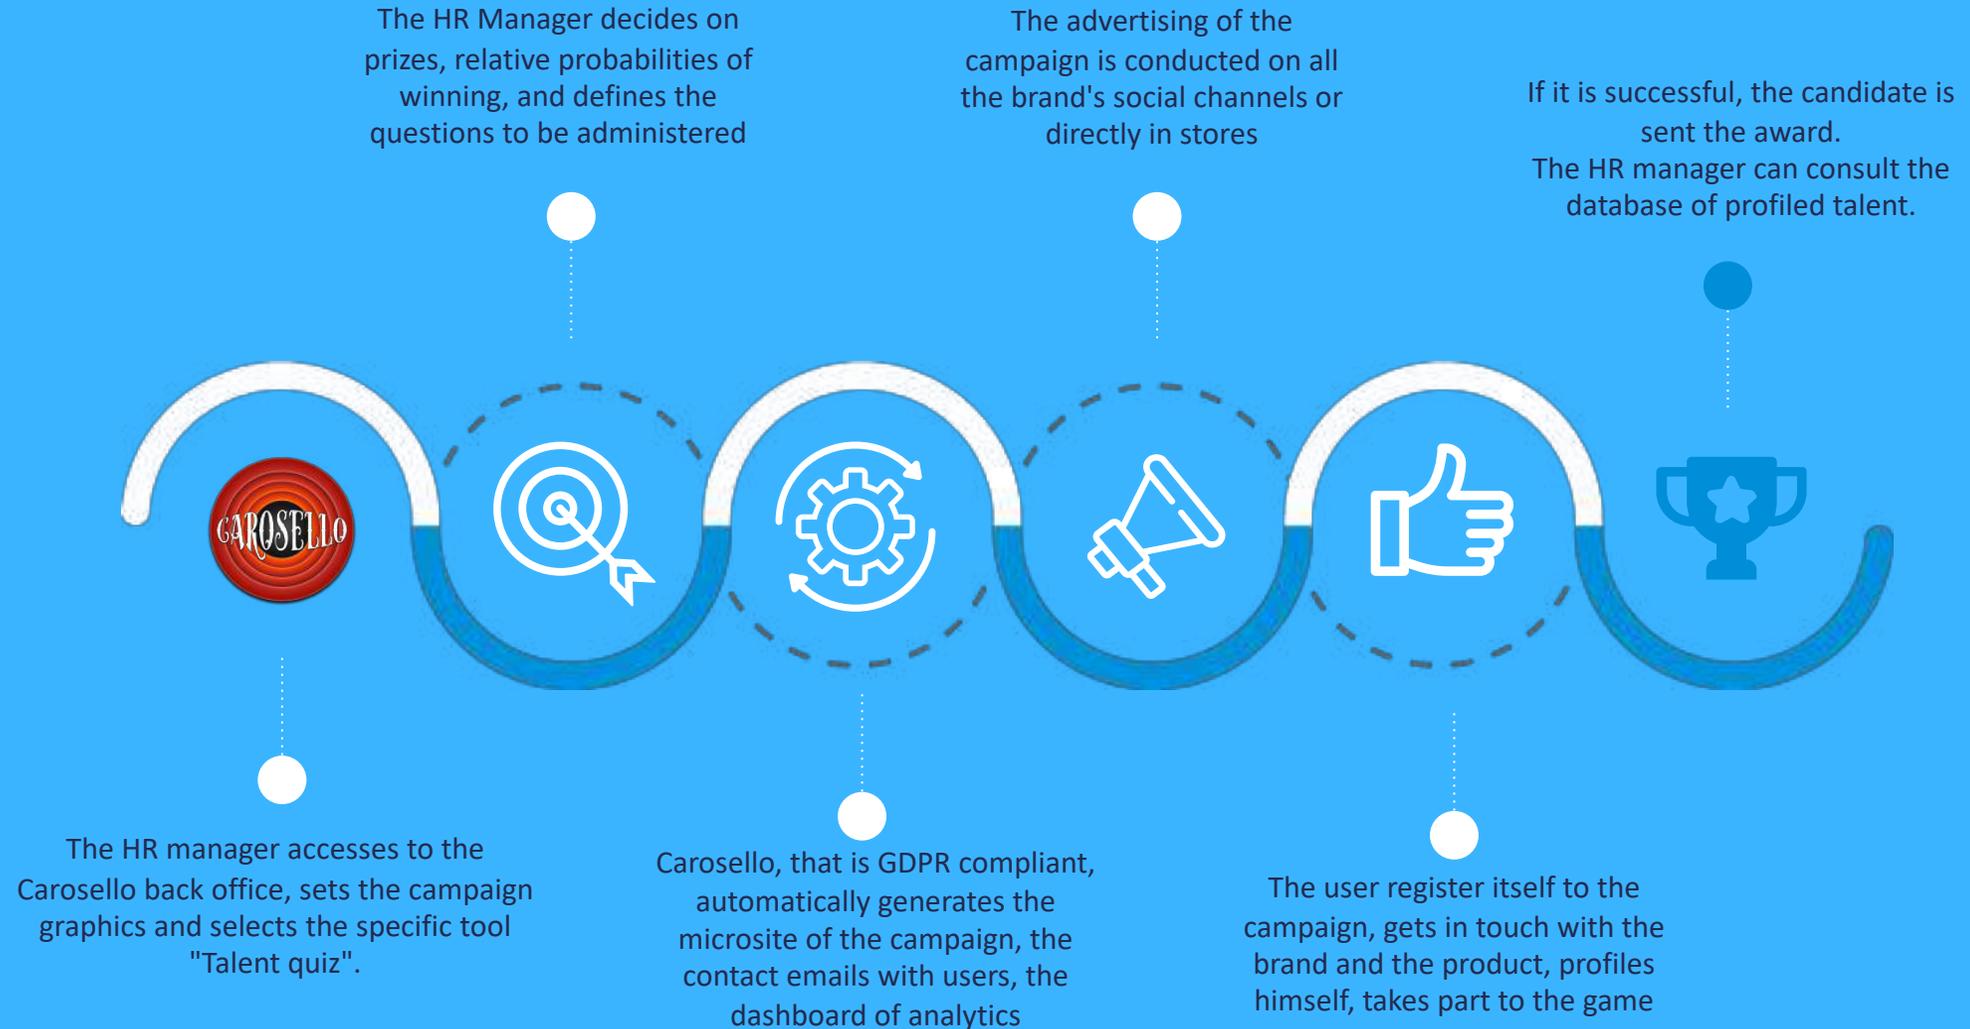

1. Customer engagement activities

2. Employee engagement activities

3. Talent engagement activities
